

Utah Pioneer Board Fetes Camp Chiefs

Weber county board of Daughters of Utah Pioneers entertained at a party for the captains of the Weber county camps on Monday, October 19, at two p. m. in Pioneer hall. A business meeting was held in connection with the party.

Two Birthdays Are Celebrated

Two birthday parties were celebrated on Sunday, October 18 at the home of Neta McArthur of 2836 Quincey avenue in honor of Ada Anderson and Nita McArthur.

Police Benefit Auxiliary Meets

The auxiliary of the Ogden Police Benefit association entertained at the home of Mrs. George Theobald in Ogden canyon Wednesday evening.

Dinner Party In Honor of Three

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar T. Shreve and son Tom entertained at a dinner party Tuesday evening at their home at 2424 Jackson avenue. The event was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Stevenson and Scoutmaster G. Edwards.

Republican Women Plan Tea Wednesday

The Republican Women of the Fourth municipal ward will give a tea at the home of Mrs. Mary Watis Brown, 853 Twenty-fourth street on Wednesday, Oct. 28, between the hours of three and five o'clock.

Kayte Rhodes Irvine
Will Be at
DARREL'S BEAUTY SHOP
1st SECURITY BANK BLDG.
MONDAY, NOV. 26th
She will welcome new and old Friends
FOR APPOINTMENTS PHONE 363

FEDERATION CONCLAVE LEADERS

Mrs. J. H. Peckenpaugh, chairman (left to right), Mrs. G. G. Moyes, chairman of the program committee and Mrs. Arthur T. Johns, president of the refreshment committee for the luncheon and convention to be held starting at ten o'clock Monday morning in the crystal ballroom of the Hotel Ben Lomond by the Ogden district federation of Women's clubs.

CLUB MEETINGS

P. E. O.
P. E. O. Sisterhood, chapter F, met at the home of Mrs. John E. Carver Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harmon B. Barton had charge of the program and spoke on "American Women Poets," and touched lightly on the works of Emily Dickinson, Elinor Wylie, Amy Lowell, Sarah Teasdale and Edna St. Vincent Millay.

P. E. O. Sisterhood, chapter J, met at the home of Mrs. Arthur D. Barber on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. B. Kerr was in charge of the program and spoke on Dr. Boemer, president of Cottey college at Nevada, Mo.

HOME CULTURE
The Home Culture club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. B. Grace. Mrs. Harry F. Irwin reviewed the book, "My Country and My People," by Lin Yutang.

W. B. A.
Pioneer club W. B. A., Ogden Review No. 1, held its regular luncheon and business meeting at the Nob Hill tea room, October 14, with Mrs. Maud Jarvis and Mrs. Emma Allen as hostesses. There were eighteen members present. Vice President Mrs. Florence Shurtliff presided at the meeting. Monopoly and bridge were played.

The Past Presidents club of W. B. A., Ogden Review No. 1, will meet at the home of Mrs. Edith Prout, 1069 Capitol avenue, Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, with L. Jennie Pruitt as assisting hostess. President Anna Holden will conduct the meeting.

GAMMA IOTA
Saturday evening, October 17, Gamma Iota (shorthand club of the Ogden High school), was honored with a dinner and theatre party given by its president, Maxine Heiner, and its secretary, Norma Barrows. The following members were present: Maxine Heiner, Norma Barrows, May Jett, Barbara Purrington, Marjorie Russell, Louise Gibbons, Eleanor Evans, Delpha Evans, and the club's patron, Mrs. Evans.

Special guests were Anna Jensen, Brigham City, and Sherma Wade.

OGDEN DRAMA CLUB
The Ogden Drama club met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. A. Larkin with Mrs. M. E. Carson as assisting hostess. An interesting program was given. Miss Rosemary Barber sang "Un Bel Di" (Puccini) (One Fine Day) with "Madame Butterfly," accompanied by Mrs. Delbert B. Foulger, and Prof. Chester J. Myers, of the Utah State Agricultural college, spoke on "When I See a Play."

Tea was served following the program with Mrs. Lew W. Beason and Mrs. Clyde T. Greenwell presiding at the coffee and tea urns. Fifty-eight guests attended.

PHI KAPPA MU
The Phi Kappa Mu held its business meeting at the home of Mrs. Gladys Fall, Ladywood apartment No. 2, on October 16. Mrs. Gladys Hall presided at the business meeting. The organization had election of officers. The new officers for the year are Miss Phyllis Rosevear, president; Miss Martha Zinn, vice president; and Mrs. Gladys Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

The Phi Kappa Mu will study the lives and compositions of Debussy, Grieg and modern composers. They are also planning to have lectures to which the public will be invited.

After the meeting the hostess served refreshments. The next meeting will be guest night, November 6, and will be at the home of Martha Zinn.

MUSIC HOUR
The Music Hour club held its first monthly meeting of the season at the Gulnevere Hess studio October 21. Plans for the coming winter months were discussed and a program of piano selections, played by several members of the club, was heartily enjoyed.

Refreshments with Halloween favors were served at the conclusion of the meeting. The following are members of the club: Vaudis Allen, Jean Maddock, Cleone Richards, Yvonne Loveland, Lois Cawly, Kathryn Ingelbreten, Barbara Singleton, Lyle Hatch, Tommy Daniger, Bette McCune, Lois Leavitt, Edith Barker, Donna Hooper, Betty Schneider, Mary Isakson, and Estella Lou Branham.

PAST NOBLE GRAND
The Past Noble Grand club of the Rebekah lodge met Thursday for a one-hour luncheon at the Cobble Cottage. Mrs. Martha Miller and Mrs. Lillie Dumke were hostesses. Halloween ideas were carried out in decorations. A business meeting followed the luncheon after which bridge and bunco were played. Mrs. Mary Ross, formerly of Sparks, Nev., was initiated into the club. Seventeen members were present.

SEGO LILY
Sego Lily circle, No. 174, Neighbors of Woodcraft, held its regular meeting on Friday, October 16. A company of 35 Salt Lake City circle members and two members from California were present.

MUSIC GUILD
The Music Guild bi-monthly meeting was conducted on Wednesday evening at the studio of Miss Mona Smith. Egyptian music was the topic of discussion. Miss Jeanne Scowcroft read an interesting paper on the subject. Miss Scowcroft, Miss Betty Hinkelley and Miss Helen Thorne played selections. Miss Sophie Reed was welcomed into active membership. The next meeting will be held on November 4.

D. A. V. Auxiliary Presents Program
Members of the Disabled American-Veterans auxiliary presented a program at the Veteran's hospital in Salt Lake City on Friday evening under direction of Mrs. Harry E. McNeill, with Mrs. E. Illum as master of ceremonies. The program consisted of selections by a girl's chorus, dances, readings and instrumental numbers. Transportation was furnished by Mrs. George Meyer. Mrs. Loyal West, Mrs. Wallace Brown and Wilford Martin.

Dominican republic has given its chief executive the right to ban the importation of motion pictures, phonograph records, drawings, photographs and newspapers containing criticisms of representations offensive to the government or officials.

NEW HOTEL LANCKERSHIM
LOCATION
7th & Broadway
"All Hotels Are Modern"
"LOCATION" is the difference.
In the center of shops and shows!
operated by
"WISHON HOTEL COMPANY"
Phone R. Wishon, President
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

Ogdenites at Aggie Game On Saturday

Among those to attend the University of Utah and Utah State Agricultural college game Saturday at Logan were Mr. and Mrs. W. Wesley Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Petty, Dr. and Mrs. Henry C. Stranquist, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. De W. Mr. and Mrs. John N. Spargo, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Volker, Salt Lake City; Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Val A. Browning, Mr. and Mrs. John Scowcroft, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Eccles, Mrs. Patricia Noel, Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Wattis, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Hemingway, A. L. Glasmann, Al Warden, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Benning, Mr. and Mrs. Herman B. Way, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Empey and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Belliston.

Recent Bride Is Honored On Her Birthday

Mrs. Walter C. Williamson entertained at a luncheon party given at their home in Wilson Lane on Wednesday afternoon complimenting her daughter, Mrs. Russel McFarland, a recent bride who was formerly Helen Fae Williamson. The occasion was also her birthday anniversary of the bride.

A Halloween motif was used in the color scheme for the table decorations and menu. Relatives and close friends made up the guest list. A shower of lovely gifts was bestowed upon Mrs. McFarland.

Mrs. Floyd McFarland, Mrs. Glen McFarland, Mrs. Joseph Lewis and Mrs. Ray Stanger, sisters of the bridegroom joined in arranging an informal family party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. McFarland. The affair was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McFarland, Twelfth street, on the evening of October 16th. A gift shower and Halloween luncheon were featured. Fifty guests were invited.

On Monday evening Miss Jesse McFarland and Miss Irene Drake were hostesses at a bunco party, miscellaneous shower and luncheon for Mrs. McFarland. Girl friends made up the guest list. The spirit of Halloween, introduced by seasonal features, favors and decorations, prevailed and furnished unusual merriment for the group.

Mr. and Mrs. McFarland are making their home in Ogden.

Junior Pupils Plan Musicale

A Halloween musicale will be given by junior pupils of Mrs. Reed Gammell Sunday afternoon at three o'clock at the Glen Brothers retail hall. The spirit of the season will prevail as Halloween characters will interpret music, dance and readings. Appearing in costume the following students will present descriptive piano works: Helen Porter, Lucille Tingey, Doris Sepal, Maurine Martin, La Moynie Hickman, Karlene Kammeyer, Darlene Aikens, Boyde Parks, Scott Biddle, Mary Jean Scholtz, Carol Chamberlain, Patty Decker, Geraldine Ross, Carol Jean Vendell, Orlene Todd, Mavis Hickman and La Dona Gammell.

The dancers will be Mary Jean Schott from the Reed Schol of Dancing and La Dona Gammell and Janet Dursteller from the Glen School of the Dance. Pupils of Miss Betty Seaton will give the dramatic readings. A most cordial invitation is extended the public.

P. T. A. Group Feted At MacLarnan Home

The Edgington group of P. T. A. St. Joseph school, was entertained at the home of Mrs. George MacLarnan Tuesday evening. Those attending were Mrs. S. Castro, Mrs. Mike Favero, Mrs. Alice Daffron, Mrs. Paul Naggio, Mrs. Louis Kline, Mrs. Virgil Klenke, and Mrs. Stanley Taylor.

AUTUMN BRIDES

Mrs. Floyd Wheat (left), formerly Miss Ruth Fingerle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Fingerle, whose marriage took place Friday at the home of the bride's parents, 470 Canyon road, with Bishop William A. Budge performing the ceremony. Mr. Wheat is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheat. Mrs. Russell McFarland (right), formerly Miss Helen Fae Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Williamson, whose marriage of August 8 was recently announced.

CLUBS

The Cammarad club will meet with Mrs. Sadie Michaels, 645 Kershaw street, Tuesday afternoon.

The Martha society will meet Monday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. W. Walker, 549 Twenty-fifth street, with Mrs. Effie Spencer as hostess. Election of officers will be held.

Miriam chapter No. 14, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet in social session Tuesday evening, October 27, at eight o'clock in the Masonic temple to observe Men's night. Walter S. Moulton will be chairman of entertainment and John A. Houston, chairman of refreshments, assisted by the men of the chapter.

The Krowledeen club will meet Wednesday, October 28, at the Nob Hill tea room for a one o'clock luncheon. Mrs. Dee Reynolds of Palo Alto, Calif., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy Drollinger, will entertain the club at this meeting. Mrs. Reynolds formerly lived in Ogden, and members of the club are her intimate friends. She will also entertain other friends at the affair.

Women of the Moose will hold an all-day quilting Wednesday, October 28, at the home of Mrs. Mabel Sloan, 2375 Madison avenue. All members are requested to attend. Luncheon will be served at noon.

The Child Culture club will meet at two-thirty o'clock October 29, in the drawing room of Hotel Ben Lomond, with Mrs. Charles H. Thorstensen, Mrs. Georgina Marriott and Mrs. Hannah Clark as hostesses. Mrs. R. L. Harlin will be chairman of the day. Professor Walter S. Neville of Weber college will speak on "Political Science." All members are requested to be present.

The University club will hold its regular meeting at the Hotel Ben Lomond in the drawing room at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening. Mrs. J. R. Morrell will entertain with a talk on her recent European travels.

Ogden Drive No. 27 B. P. O. Does will hold its regular meeting Monday afternoon at two o'clock in the Elks' club. All members are requested to be present.

The Sempro Musical society will meet at the home of Mrs. Delbert Foulger, 2888 Eccles avenue, Thursday, October 29, at three o'clock.

The Maude Eldredge chapter Service Star Legion will meet at the apartment of Mrs. J. U. Eldredge at Hotel Ben Lomond Thursday evening at seven-thirty o'clock.

The Child Study club will meet at the home of Mrs. George W. Vogel, 1052 Darling street Monday afternoon at two o'clock. The last meeting was held Monday at the home of Mrs. Wallace B. Stobles, 2341 Harrison avenue. Election of officers was held. Mrs. Edward P. Turner was elected president, Mrs. Russell Tanner, vice president; Mrs. F. A. Madsen, secretary; Mrs. John L. Parker, treasurer; constitution committee, Mrs. Wayne Maynew and Mrs. Melbourne Douglas.

Royal Neighbors of America will hold a dress-up Halloween party in the I. O. O. F. hall on Monday, October 26. There will be a program and a no-host luncheon.

The Fi-Wo-Ca Literary club will meet with Mrs. Thatcher Alfred Friday at two o'clock. Mrs. Merrill Bunnell will give a book review.

Dix Logan Women's Relief corps will sponsor a special card party at the home of Mrs. Kate Capes, 335 Patterson avenue, Thursday, October 29, at two o'clock.

Kenneth Loveland Engaged to Wed Catherine Wilder

Mr. and Mrs. David Chauncey Loveland announce the engagement of their son, Lieutenant Kenneth Loveland, to Miss Catherine Louise Wilder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Wilder, of Honolulu. The marriage will take place some time in December. Miss Wilder is a graduate of Broadroads at Whittier college, Pasadena, Calif. She is an accomplished musician and has had a number of children's stories published. Lieut. Loveland is a graduate of the Naval academy at Annapolis.

Abraham Lincoln Circle Luncheon Held Thursday

Abraham Lincoln circle No. 2, Ladies of the G. A. R. served a one o'clock luncheon Thursday, October 22, in the I. O. O. F. hall. Places were laid for fifty.

The guests of honor were Mrs. Clara Sawyer, past national president; Comrade Ira Storms, commander of the G. A. R. for Utah; and four surviving charter members of the circle, Miss Eva Erb, Mrs. Kate Hodge, Mrs. Ima Davis, and Mrs. Maude Driggs; and officers of the department of Utah.

After the luncheon, the ladies adjourned to the lodge room, where Mrs. Bula Oberg, president, called the meeting to order. After the pledge of allegiance to the flag, President Oberg had the circle conductress escort Mrs. Sawyer and the department officers to the altar. The officers took over the offices of the circle.

Seven candidates were initiated by the special officers. Department President Michals reported on the national convention held in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Sawyer delivered a talk on the memorial shrine at Washington commemorating the comrades who fought for the cause of the union.

Comrade Storms gave a short talk on the convention, saying more members attended this year than for many years past. His speech was followed by a few words from Irene Patella, president of Gordo: Circle, Salt Lake City; and Hattie Anderson, president of Reynolds circle, Salt Lake City.

Committee in charge of the meeting was composed of Mrs. Lea Kinard, Mrs. Marie Russel, Mrs. Nell Holmes, Mrs. La Vaun Sharar, Mrs. Mae Hewes, and Mrs. Lottie Norris.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Clara Sawyer, San Diego, Comrade Ira Storms, Hattie Anderson, Evelyn Ellison, Isa McLuse, Lillian Lockabee, Mary Schnell, Artie Price, Elizabeth Armstrong, Ethel Robey, Irene Patella, and Bessie Nilson, all of Salt Lake City.

Bridge Party of Miriam Chapter Held Monday

In honor of its associate matron, Mrs. Eleanor Giddings, Miriam chapter No. 14 Order of the Eastern Star entertained at a bridge luncheon Monday afternoon at the Masonic temple. The tables were arranged in the shape of a large "U" and the Halloween idea was cleverly carried out in the decorations and favors.

Worthy Matron Mrs. W. E. Lancaster introduced the honored guest, who responded graciously. Mrs. Delbert B. Foulger played a piano solo and Mrs. Andrew T. Clark entertained with several dramatic readings.

The chairman of committees in charge were Mrs. Fred Carr, Mrs. June W. Clark and Dr. Margaret Burns.

Because its imports from Japan have fallen off heavily while imports from all other countries have increased, Egypt has been informed that unless some agreement is reached regulating trade between Egypt and Japan the Tokyo legation at Cairo may be closed.

You Women Who Long for a New FUR COAT
Should See These Beautiful New Princess and Swagger Styles
The styling in these coats is so utterly new and the skins so rich, thick and silky, they are a treat to look at. At these prices — it's an easy step to own one.
Prices Start at $59.75 and go $435 up to
WRIGHT'S
Utah's Smartest Shopping Center!

$1 SPECIALS $1
Shampoo Finger Wave Areh and Manicure $1
Shampoo Finger Wave Color Rinse and Manicure $1
Shampoo Finger Wave Color Rinse and Haircut $1
Hot Oil Treatment, Shampoo, Lemon Rinse and Finger Wave $1.00
Antiseptic Oil Shampoo, Finger Wave and Haircut $1.00
BETTY KAY BEAUTY PARLOR
WHERE QUALITY COUNTS
2524 Washington Avenue Phone 177.
Only Competent, Skilled Operators to Serve You

PLAIN WOOL DRESSES CLEANED, PRESSED $1.00
Sanitone brings back original life and color... makes an old dress look... and FEEL... like new! Phone 367 today!
Fur Trimmed Winter COATS
Fur and cloth cleaned and renewed separately, assuring a better cleaning job.
Model LAUNDERS-CLEANERS
PHONE 367