

RANDOM REFERENCES.

Mayor Lundy returned yesterday from the north, where he has been for nearly a week.

Rev. Mr. Hart of Hannibal, Missouri, will preach at the Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30 p. m.

Hon. J. E. Dooly of Salt Lake was in Ogden last evening on business connected with his banking interests.

Dr. J. C. Solomon and family left Ogden last night for Berlin, where the doctor will pursue his studies for some time.

Tom Nelson has been quite ill with rheumatic fever for two weeks. He is now improving and hopes of his early restoration are now entertained.

Mrs. F. J. Cannon and children left for Oakland, California, on this morning's train, to spend a few weeks away for the benefit of Mrs. Cannon's health.

On Sunday the Ogden Turn Verein will commence a series of semi-monthly entertainments and socials. These gatherings will undoubtedly become extremely popular.

Only one offender was arraigned in the police court yesterday before Justice Cahoon, being a Chinaman, who was fined $5 and costs for assaulting another celestial.

Officers Learn and Silvey last night arrested six Chinamen for opium smoking. A complete smoking outfit was found in the room, which is located over the store-room recently occupied by Hong Sling, near the Novelty theater.

Anna Richards, a depraved female, was found last night up stairs in D. H. Peery's Twenty-fourth street building, by Officers Learn and Silvey and given lodgings in the city jail, a charge of prostitution being booked against her.

Only one order was entered for record in the probate court yesterday. In the matter of the estate of Mary Ann Hastings, deceased, John H. Hastings, the administrator, filed his final account and petition for distribution. The hearing was set for February 14th.

A caucus was on the programme for the city council last night, but owing to the absence of Mayor Lundy, the consultation was continued. There is much speculation regarding the probable appointment of the few remaining officers, and it now looks as though a dark horse will win in the race for attorney.

Tomorrow morning the stables of Senator Stanford will go east. The horses occupy six special cars and are consigned to New York and Washington. The senator and his family will reach Ogden this week on his way east to Washington. Ogden has a staunch friend in Senator Stanford and one who is doing all in his power to further her interests.