

SOCIETY.

Many campers, who, thinking the cold spell of two weeks ago was a foreboding of coming fall, and who forsook their summer abodes, have again sought the cool of the various resorts, causing society events of the week to be few.

Mrs. Frank Cook is confined to her bed with inflammatory rheumatism.

Miss Louise Bridges, formerly a teacher in the Emerson school, but lately of Lewiston, Idaho, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Knoth, 2547 Grant.

Miss Cora Cook has been called home on account of the illness of her mother.

Miss Florence Northrop has gone to South Fork to camp with friends from Wyoming.

Next Tuesday evening the Jolly Four will entertain their friends at a ball at the Hermitage.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Runyan and daughter left this morning for a month's visit in the east.

We are pleased to state that Mrs. M. L. Northrop has sold out her ranch in Wyoming and has returned to our city.

Miss Mae Jenkins' musical pupils gave a complimentary recital at the Baptist church last evening which was enjoyed by a large audience.

Miss Pearl Snyder departs for Thatcher, Arizona in a few days, where she accepts a position as supervisor of music in the public school.

Misses Clara and Cora Harris will entertain the Rathbone Sisters, Thursday, September 7, at 328 Thirty-third street. All Sisters invited.

Professor and Mrs. J. M. Briggs returned Thursday from the east and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Paine, at 2526 Adams avenue for a few days.

Mrs. Mary Couch and daughter, Mamie, returned home Saturday last, after visiting the past month with friends in Oakland and Los Angeles, California.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. M. L. Northrop gave a dainty luncheon in honor of Messrs and Mesdames Foot and Wilson of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald of Laramie and Mrs. Adlen of Ogden.

Monday, Labor Day, will be a gala day for a large number of pleasure seekers, as it is on this day that the Maccabees hold sway at the Springs and the A. O. U. W. at Glenwood.

Mrs. A. E. Robbins of 2131 Adams, entertained the Rathbone sisters, of which she is a member, very charmingly last Thursday afternoon. These afternoon parties held every two weeks at the different members homes are very pleasant and much enjoyed by all.

A most enjoyable dance and open air concert was given Tuesday evening by Ogden City band under the auspices of the ladies of the Episcopal church at Lester Park. The affair was a success both financially and socially.

On Monday last was performed the marriage ceremony which united the loving hearts of Miss Alice James and Arthur West. The bride is one of Logan's esteemable young ladies and has a large circle of friends. Mr. West is an Ogden boy, and has the well wishes for he and his bride, of many acquaintances.

Miss Elizabeth Johns has been visiting in Salt Lake for the past two days.

Mr. R. C. Taylor and wife and daughter left by the U. P. yesterday for a few weeks outing in Pennsylvania and Illinois among relatives and friends.

A most pleasing event in the social realm this week was the annual banquet given by the Fifth ward ladies at the Fifth ward institute last evening.

Mr. Squire Coop's music classes are to be reconvened some time during the coming week. Mr. Coop expects to be a very busy teacher this season, more so than ever, as his labors in the profession of music are in demand in several cities of Utah and he will not confine himself to Ogden in giving musical instructions.

A week ago today Justice Hall officiated at the marriage ceremony which united Miss Elsie E. Mann and George E. Eddy. Mr. and Mrs. Eddy are well and favorably known in this city, where their many friends will join in wishing them all joy and happiness in their new state.

The new resort, Glenwood, was visited by several parties this week. First was the excursion given under the auspices of the Rebekahs on Sunday when some 5,000 people were in attendance. The next excursion was scheduled for Tuesday and was given by the Degree of Honor. For a while, owing to the destruction by fire of the pavilion at the resort, on Sunday night, it was thought that the outing on Tuesday and the one to be given the Thursday following would have to be dispensed with, but the enterprising proprietors rushed the work of rebuilding the pavilion and all was ready for Tuesday afternoon and the Degree of Honor and their friends. The number present on this occasion was quite large and Thursday, Volunteer Day, was equal, from a standpoint of enjoyment and attendance, of either of the former events.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Ethel Welch Tuesday evening, prior to her departure for the west. Games, cards and music were indulged in until 12:30 when all adjourned to the dining room where dainty refreshments were served, after which the crowd dispersed all wishing Miss Welch a pleasant trip.

BATTERIES A AND B GUESTS.

(Communicated).

The ladies of the Red Cross delightedly entertained our returning heroes of Battery A and B and officers at breakfast August 19. How our hearts swelled with pride as we surveyed the well spread tables and the rows of our noble soldier lads that they returned to their loved ones without a scar. We did not forget the noble boys that sleep in fair Philippine graves.

TO LOWER ITS TRACKS.

Salt Lake city wants the Oregon Short Line to lower its tracks to the established grade within the city limits.

Suit has been commenced by the city to compel the railway company to do so. The complaint alleges that the grades were established by the city on South Temple, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth West streets on December 23, 1893. These are the streets over which the Oregon Short Line runs. A resolution was passed in 1897, directing the company to lower its grade.

A DELIGHTFUL EVENING.

A delightful party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shepherd, 2220 Lincoln avenue, Wednesday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Williams, of Cheyenne, Wyo. The rooms were bright with cut flowers, the dining room being artistically decorated with smilax, lilies and chrysanthemums. High five was the feature of the evening, and the prizes were won by Mrs. F. W. Baker, Miss Nettie Stevens, Mr. F. J. Stevens, Charles H. Nelson. Among those who enjoyed the evening were: Messrs. and Mesdames C. H. Wright, F. P. Williams, O. Riser, F. J. Stevens, C. H. Nelson, A. L. Brewer, J. L. Herrick, Dr. F. W. Baker, Mrs. E. L. Anderson, Mrs. E. M. Miller of Salt Lake, Miss Nettie Stevens, Miss Kate Stevens, Miss Lucretia West, Miss Daisy Shepherd, Mr. C. J. Humphries, Mr. Sherman.

A GALA DAY.

Of the many canyon parties given this season, none can be classed above the one given by the Z. C. M. I. force yesterday. At 4 o'clock p. m. tally-hos to the number of four, droye to the Z. C. M. I. store and there took on their loads of happy humanity and proceeded to the canyon. When the Hermitage was reached, the partaking of the sumptuous supper which was awaiting them was the first thing to occupy their attention, and was greatly relished.

Dancing and a jolly good time in general was indulged in till after 8 o'clock when the tally-hos were again, brought into use. It was 8:30 when the city was reached and all adjourned to the Fifth Ward Institute and joined in the banquet given by that ward. Sergeant Wardlaw and wife, N Hinchcliff and wife, Mrs J McQuarrie and Mrs L Herrick joined the jolly company shortly after their arrival in the canyon. The participants all declare that this outing was one of the most pleasant and jolly gatherings they ever attended. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Sam Hastings, George Shorten, T A Reeves, Chris Flygare, Loui Crawshaw, Joes. Harrison, A Kalderwyn, Nat A Tanner, Mrs F J Cannon. Misses Ada Douglas, Rhoda Stevenson, Nell Young, Mamie McQuartie, Eva Brown, Glen Douglas. Messrs. John Watson, N C Flygare, Jas H Douglas, C J Brown, Frank Nesbitt, Wm Watson, Chas Carlson, Joseph Rackham, Sdmner Nelson, Maynard Nelson and Fred Williams. Masters John Gilmore, Emile Ecklund and Leland Fife.
