

POINTS AND PERSONALS.

Councilman Jones spent Monday in Salt Lake City.

Seven cars of silk went east yesterday over the Union Pacific.

Realty transfers were six in number and aggregated $16,850.

Mayor Lundy returned yesterday from a business trip to Butte, Mont.

Dr. Mossman went to Evanston yesterday on professional business.

Corbitt's stable of fast horses went east yesterday after a rest of two days at Dee's stables.

The South Ogden cases before Judge Cross were continued yesterday until next Wednesday.

Another party of prospectors outfitted here yesterday and started for the San Juan gold fields.

The Standard Publishing Company has increased its capital stock from $20,000 to $60,000.

In Police Court yesterday Judge Cahoon fined a Chinaman $5 and costs for assaulting a Celestial brother.

Dr. J. C. Solomon and family left yesterday for Berlin, Germany, where they will reside several months before returning to Ogden.

The Central Pacific head officials will be in Ogden to-day, and will make full arrangements for the commencement of work on the shops.

Smith and Spencer, the festive and larcenous cowboys, have been held to the grand jury in $500 bonds each on the charge of grand larceny.

Colonel W. L. P. Peyton, who has been ill for some days, was so far recovered yesterday as to be able to be out on the street for a short time.

Mrs. Louisa S. Morton yesterday brought suit for divorce in the Fourth District Court against her husband, Charles C. Morton, alleging desertion.

The Utah Hot Springs Company met yesterday and elected the following officers: President, William H. Paxton; vice-president, A. B. Patton; secretary, C. H. King; treasurer, James Pingree.

In the estate of Mary Ann Hastings, deceased, John Hastings, administrator, yesterday filed in Probate Court his final account and petition for distribution. Hearing was set for Saturday, February 4th.